- I. Propose and support passage of legislation allowing Florida to participate in programs such as the Electronic Registration Information Center.
- II. Create a public exemption for all voter registration information maintained by the state in the statewide voter registration system.
- III. Provide that sample ballots may be mailed to voters in lieu of publication in a newspaper, and remove the requirement that polling place changes must be published in a newspaper.
- IV. Provide that candidates pay qualifying fees using a cashiers check or money order drawn from funds in the candidates campaign account.
- V. Conform the times for mailing and canvassing ballots in Section 101.6103(1) and (6), F.S., dealing with mail ballot elections to other substantive statutory time frames.
